From the Friday, June 13, 1997 edition of the Kankakee Journal:

Shirley Ann Patchett, 66, of Kankakee, died Wednesday (June 11, 1997) at St. Francis Hospital in Blue Island. Visitation will be from 4-8 p.m. Friday at Hertz-Thomas Chapel, where services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday. There will be private cremation. She was born June 7m 1931 (sic) in Reddick, the daughter of Ulysses and Edna Murphy Curwick. Her husband, Donald Patchett, whom she married July 2, 1951 in Kankakee, is deceased. Surviving are three sons and daughters-in-law, Dennis and Rita Patchett of Kankakee, Dan and Nora Patchett of St. Anne and Dale and Kelly Patchett of Chebanse; one daughter and son-in-law, Christy A. and Donald Devine of Kankakee; six sisters and five brothers-in-law, Carol and Jerry Ginger and LaVona and George Brinkman, all of Bradley, Mabel and Earl VanGilder and Charles Walthers, all of Kankakee, Florence Banks of Kevil, Ky., Mary and Dan Bowen of Phoenix, Ariz., and Betty Hardy of Akron, Ohio; two brothers and one sister-in-law, Paul and Ritta Curwick of Kankakee and Delbert Curwick of Bradley; 15 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. Deceased are her parents; husband; three brothers, Charles, Donald and Joseph; and one sister Lel Walthers. Danielle Bowen had birth year as 1930, but SSDI says 1931, as does obit.