
Sue (Keroack) Kannally

Sue Kannally (Keroack)

1931 - 2016

FARMINGTON - Sue Kannally (Keroack) died peacefully on July 15, 2016. in Farmington at the age of 85.

She leaves her devoted husband of 61 years, Thomas Kannally; two sons, Tom, Jr. and his wife Pam Longenbach of Northborough, Mass. and Tim and his wife Jen Ray of Rowley, Mass. and one daughter, Jane Emery and her husband Phil of Barre, Mass.; and two grandchildren, Sara and Thomas Emery.

Sue grew up in Livermore Falls and moved with her family to Peekskill, N.Y. where she graduated from high school. She returned to Maine to attend Farmington State Teachers College, (now the University of Maine at Farmington), where she received a BS in Education. After graduation, she excelled as a 4th grade teacher, first in Bangor and then in Canton, Mass., eventually marrying her college beau, Tom, and settling in the Boston area. She later earned a Master's Degree and a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies in Elementary School Guidance and was a staff member of the Elementary School Guidance departments for the towns of Hansen, Holliston, Norwood, and Sharon, Mass. and, after returning to Maine in 1988, she continued her work in the towns of Kingfield, Strong, Stratton, and Phillips (S.A.D. 57).

Sue had a strong artistic streak and became an accomplished potter, creating stoneware and porcelain pottery for her business called "Cellardoor Pottery." She was a member of the Franklin County Arts & Crafts Association, selling her pottery at craft fairs in Maine and throughout New England. She enjoyed hiking, skiing, skating, tennis, gardening, cooking, and most of all spending time with her family.

The Kannally family would like to thank the staff of Orchard Park Rehabilitation and Living Center in Farmington for the excellent care they have provided over the years.

A funeral mass is scheduled for 9:00 a.m. on Saturday July 23, 2016, at St. Joseph's in Farmington. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Sue's life. Arrangements under the care of Adams-McFarlane Funeral & Cremation Services, 108 Court St., Farmington. Condolences may be sent for the family at www.adamsmcfarlane.com

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to:

Orchard Park Activity Fund

c/o the Orchard Park Rehabilitation and Living Center

107 Orchard St.

Farmington, ME 04938

Funeral HomeAdams-McFarlane Funeral & Cremation Services

108 Court St Farmington, ME 04938

(207) 778-3350

Published in Central Maine on July 19, 2016
