

From the Monday, March 5, 2007 edition of the Daytona Beach News-Journal, Page 6C:

Sylvia Paglash AUG 22, 1926 - MARCH 3, 2007 NEW SMYRNA BEACH -

Sylvia Louise Paglash, 80, of Magnolia Avenue, a former registered nurse, died Saturday at Bert Fish Medical Center. Mrs. Paglash was born in Harvey, Ill., and moved to this area in 1997 from Chicago. She was a member of Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church. She was a volunteer with Meals on Wheels at the Brandon Senior Center and a Pink Lady at Bert Fish Medical Center. Mrs. Paglash enjoyed her pet cats. Survivors include two sons, Laurence Groeneveld, New Smyrna Beach, and Tom LeRoy, Chicago; a daughter, Pam Kehnert, Winter Haven; two brothers, Ronald and Bernard Kyrouac both of Illinois; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. Memorial donations may be made to the American Lung Association, Spaceport Branch, 412 S. Palmetto Ave., Daytona Beach, FL 32114. Baldwin Brothers Memorial is in charge.