

Mrs Thomas Kerouac

of St. Herbert

Denver Rocky Mountain News (Denver, Colorado) July 15, 1905

... of the Japanese navy to attend on his flagship.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y.--Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerouac of St. Herbert, who had only been married a year, were drowned together in Lac Grand Moucho by the leaking and subsequent foundering of a boat in which they were rowing. Mrs. Dumont, sister of Mrs. Kerouac and who accompanied them, was picked up alive after having been in the water for two or three hours.

NEW YORK.--A general strike of the East side coatmakers is expected by labor leaders to be called next week. Ten thousand men will be affected. The button-hole makers' branch of the United Garment Makers will strike on Sunday.

TEN PERSONS IN DEBRIS OF IRON-BOAT WHICH SANK

DIED

St. Herbert

Q Mrs Dumont
Sister