MANCHESTER - William "Bill" M. Clancy, Sr., 86, of Manchester, NH, died April 16, 2015, after a brief illness. Born in Lowell, MA, on May 30, 1928, he was the son of John and Katherine (Barry) Clancy. He resided in the Queen City most of his life. He graduated from Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church Grammar School. During World War II, he served with United States Marine Corps. Upon his retirement, he was an iron worker with the Iron Workers Union Local No. 474 for many years. He was a longtime communicant of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church. Most recently, he was a member of Saint Anthony Parish. Devoted to his faith, he was a member of the Legion of One Thousand Men of the Monastery of the Precious Blood. Bill was also a member of the American Legion Henry J. Sweeney Post No. 2, The Club Mt. Royal, and the East Manchester Fish and Game. His family and friends will remember him for his good nature and warm ways. His grandchildren were close to his heart. Bill especially enjoyed spending time at the beach. Family members include four sons, John Clancy of Dunbarton, Michael Clancy of Waterloo, NY, Richard Clancy of Manchester, and Michael Clancy; his daughter, Norma Johnson of Lewiston, ME; seventeen grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; his sister, Mary Burrows of FL; and many dear friends. He was predeceased by his son, William M. Clancy, Jr.
